Elmer's Island to Remain Closed

Baton Rouge, La. - The Louisiana Department of Wildlife and Fisheries announces Elmer's Island, located on the southwestern tip of Jefferson Parish, will remain closed to the public until further notice.

The access road connecting La. Hwy. 1 to the refuge beach area has undergone significant damage as a result of Hurricane Isaac.

The Department of Wildlife and Fisheries is charged with managing and protecting Louisiana's abundant natural resources. For more information, visit us at www.wlf.louisiana.gov on Facebook at www.facebook.com/ldwffb or follow us on Twitter @LDWF.
